

John Togba Wright is a student at the University of Rhode Island, majoring in Human Development & Family Studies. John works at the J. Arthur Trudeau Memorial Center as a Residential Assistant. He is the founder of Bormamen Scout project, Boys Scout of Liberia and a member of the Boys Scout of America.

Christian by religion and a catholic by denomination, John is very much interested in making positive impact on the lives of under-privileged children and families especially in his motherland – Liberia. John grew up in Liberia and during the Liberian conflict, experienced firsthand what it was to lack the basic necessities of life. His desire is that children and families can have the opportunity to enjoy a better life.
